

DRAWING THE FLOW

MARCH 2, 2019

3-6pm

You are invited to draw the flow of a dance, capture the essence of a movement through gesture drawing, observe the proportions of a human body in short poses, learn the blind contour and, most importantly, have fun! Expand the horizons of your perception in this hands-on drawing workshop under guidance of a professional artist and art instructor Natalia Kropf. This workshop is open to all - no art degree is necessary - only positive attitude and love for movement.

The art supplies and paper will be provided for an extra $5, please register in advance. Participants are most welcome to bring their own sketchbooks and art materials, dry media only.

Natalia Kropf is a professional classically trained artist who works in wide variety of media from traditional painting and drawing, printmaking, collage, photography, to contemporary mixed media, painting and sculpture.

Her work can be found in private collections in the US, Europe and Far East.
